

Master of Science in Organizational Leadership
UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER

May 9, 2022

Dear Brooklyn:

After careful review of your application materials, I am pleased to inform you that the Division of Continuing Education and Professional Studies has recommended to the Graduate School that you be admitted to the Master of Science in Organizational Leadership program for Fall 2022. The program's Fall 2022 semester begins on August 22, 2022.

Please complete the Intent to Enroll form located at the bottom of your application status page. If you indicate that you will attend the program, you will receive additional information on course scheduling, registration, and academic advising before the start of the term. In the interim, please contact Program Coordinator Celleny Juarez (celleny.juarez@colorado.edu) if there is anything we can do to assist you.

Congratulations on reaching this milestone in your academic and professional career. We are delighted that you have pursued this opportunity and we look forward to having you join us.

Sincerely,
