Dear Candice,

Congratulations! Based upon the receipt of all items needed for academic admission and the review of all documents provided, we have determined that you are now unconditionally admitted to the Master of Divinity program at Amridge University.

The administration and faculty are pleased that you have chosen this University to fulfill your advanced academic objectives and goals. Our goal is to provide you with the best educational experience possible. Your faith and trust in our academic program is important to us, and it is our desire and policy to portray and provide a professional academic program.

Our Admissions Office is now transferring your academic file to the Registry Office. Your Student Advisor and other professional staff will continue to stay in touch with you as you progress through your courses at Amridge University.

We hope that you have a great semester, and we are happy to welcome you as a member of our special community of Amridge graduate students.

Sincerely yours,

Brooks Housley
