National Honor Society

(2021-Present Day)

As a member of The National Honor Society (NHS), students are recognized for their academic achievements and success. Aside from the acknowledgement of honor roll, NHS highlights proficiency in areas of scholarship, service, leadership, and character. The National Honor Society has helped provide opportunities to assist in the special education department at my high school, feed the homeless, pick up trash on school grounds and surrounding areas, and help peers feel seen and appreciated.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints provides thousands of opportunities to serve in locations that vary from countries in need of humanitarian assistance to local neighborhoods. Within each ward, youth are encouraged to congregate once a week and participate in activities that are often service based. The Young Women organization of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints provides instruction, encouragement and support for members ages 11 through 17. Opportunities have been given for leadership callings, organizing and carrying out service projects, conducting food drives, and providing assistance through manual labor.
