Dear Ryan,

Congratulations! Your application to the MBA Online program at the University of Utah David Eccles School of Business has been reviewed and we are thrilled to offer you admission to the program beginning in the spring 2024 semester.

We believe you are an exceptional candidate and look forward to the contributions that you will offer to the class of a top-10 online MBA program.

To indicate your intention to accept or decline our invitation to enroll in the program, please complete the electronic enrollment form in the email with this letter. You will need to include your student number (u1006802) on the enrollment form.

One of the great strengths of the MBA Online program is the recognition that comes from a high-quality David Eccles School of Business education. As a student in one of the world's top online MBA programs, you can expect the opportunity to learn from faculty that are thought leaders in their fields as well as from fellow students with diverse academic and professional backgrounds.

The MBA Online program has been carefully designed to allow you to maintain a work-life balance, and will provide you value commensurate to the time you invest. You are admitted to the program because we believe you are prepared to rise to the level, both academically and professionally, of our current students and distinguished alumni.

Your journey will begin with a mandatory online orientation, dates will be provided closer to the start of class. The program also includes a three day, on-campus residency, which will be held in late summer 2024, to allow you to fully integrate yourself into the network of fellow students. Official dates for residency will be sent to you soon.

We will connect with you via email regarding your next steps once you have completed your enrollment form. In the meantime, please do not hesitate to contact our office at (801) 587-8870 if you have any questions. The journey that lies ahead of you represents an amazing opportunity, so again, my congratulations!

Sincerely,

Xani Haynie, MBA
